LLOYD A. GILL SR.

Chesapeake, Virginia | (908) 731-1924 | Lgill1978@gmail.com | linkedin.com/in/lloyd-a-gill-sr

FOOTBALL OPERATIONS | SCOUTING | PLAYER PERSONNEL

Retired U.S. Navy Chief Petty Officer and experienced program manager transitioning into college football operations. Combines 21 years of military leadership, personnel evaluation, strategic planning, logistics, and high-pressure decision-making with graduate study in Sport Management and Sport Analytics.

CORE STRENGTHS

Player Evaluation & Scouting	Recruiting Operations	Roster Management
Sport Analytics	Personnel Leadership	Complex Event Logistics

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Program Manager / Support Engineer | Huntington Ingalls Industries

Virginia Beach, Virginia | January 2023 - Present

- Direct large-scale operations and training programs involving more than 600 events annually.
- Coordinate Navy, joint, international, and cross-functional teams in high-accountability environments.
- Lead planning, technical coordination, personnel management, performance assessment, and operational briefings.

Chief Petty Officer | United States Navy

21 years of service

- Led diverse teams, evaluated personnel, and managed complex shipboard and shore operations.
- Built expertise in strategic planning, logistics, training, quality assurance, and high-stakes decision-making.
- Developed a leadership approach grounded in preparation, accountability, consistency, and trust.

EDUCATION

Master of Sport Management, Concentration in Sport Analytics | Old Dominion University

Expected May 2027 | Norfolk, Virginia

Bachelor of Science in Accounting | University of Maryland Global Campus

2025

CAREER OBJECTIVE

Pursuing opportunities in college football scouting, recruiting, player personnel, roster management, and football operations, with the long-term goal of becoming a college football general manager.